

Maurice The Fish

World-Class Live Band & One-Stop Custom Entertainment Solution

The band was AWESOME ... my group had a fabulous time and danced the night away. I've been a meeting planner since 1998 and Maurice the Fish was by far one of the best bands I've had for my programs. THANK YOU!"
-- Lynette R. - TD Telecom - Vancouver, BC

Maurice The Fish is an in-demand world class band that offers a one stop custom entertainment package solution for all your live music entertainment wishes: corporate events, dance parties, weddings, festivals, trade shows, conventions and celebrations of all kinds.

Rated the #1 Dance Band in North America (2007, Gigmasters), MTF Showcases a mix of original and top 40 songs from the 1960's to today with an extensive song list that pleases people of all ages and tastes. Each band member sings lead vocals and can provide a myriad of entertainment configurations within the same engagement: High Energy Dance Entertainment / Welcome and Cocktail Reception music / Dinner Hour music / Background Instrumentals / other custom configurations, to perfectly transition every event and set the tone for world-class events.

Maurice The Fish is comprised of internationally acclaimed musicians: Rob Rigoni, Eric Montgomery, Raymond Hayden and Julianna Montgomery. The experience and talent is proven: each professional musician have performed and/or recorded alongside musicians from Heart, Supertramp, Love Mongers, Blue Oyster Cult, April Wine, Berlin, Nazareth, Jefferson Starship and are voting members with the National Recording Academy (Grammy Awards).

The band's pro team provides event planning, logistics, and promotional expertise to ensure client's special needs are met in every way. Entertainment packages include pro sound and lighting systems scaled to meet the event space and the pro engineers to run them.

Maurice The Fish resides in the Northwest, travels nationally, and books up to two years in advance. Please use the contact information below for booking and additional information.
